

Ward Closing at Woodland View

A ward for people with complex learning disabilities is closing soon. Families are worried about finding new care due to staff shortages.

The ward is not safe. There are problems with staff and violence. They want to move patients, but families need more time to plan.

Fraser has stayed longer than planned. His dad is worried because Fraser needs special care. The government knows this is hard for families.