

A military parade in Washington DC on 14 June marks the US Army's 250th birthday and President Trump's 79th birthday.

The last US military parade was in 1991 for Gulf War soldiers. People have different views on the cost and purpose of a new parade.

The BBC asked people in Washington DC about the parade. Some like it, others think it's a waste of money. Feelings are mixed.

Protests in Los Angeles about immigration. People talk about Trump's spending bill and Canada wildfires.

Donald Trump and Elon Musk disagree about taxes. Joe Biden says he has prostate cancer.