

The Marine Management Organisation may stop crayfish fishing in some UK waters from Dec 2025 to May 2026 to protect and help them grow.

Share your thoughts until July 2025. The plan is to help crayfish grow by not catching them in certain months, so there are more in the future.