

Meeting About AI and Energy

The AI Energy Council is meeting to plan how to have enough energy for AI. Tech and energy companies are working together to prepare for the future.

The UK is giving £2 billion to grow AI and create jobs, making new tools for hospitals and schools to lead in clean energy and AI.

The meeting will also discuss how AI can help build a clean energy future. Important people from tech and energy companies, like Google and.