

New Hospital in Islamabad

A 250-bed hospital in Islamabad is being built with help from the UK. It will open in 2026.

The hospital will have 28 types of care. Smart tech will keep people safe. UK experts will train staff. Some hard cases may go to London.

The UK and Pakistan work together to share healthcare skills. Pakistani doctors learn from UK experts, helping both countries improve healthcare.