

Captain Ernest Cecil Blencowe's grave, a WWI soldier from the Dorsetshire Regiment, was found in Belgium and honoured at a special service.

Captain Blencowe died in 1916. His body was found in 1921 but identified later. His grave now has his name.

Two great-grandchildren and a history lover went to the service. The new headstone will be cared for forever at Bedford House Cemetery.