

Pitbull loves fans dressing like him at shows with suits, sunglasses, and bald caps. It's a fun UK concert tradition that makes him feel honoured.

Pitbull, real name Armando Perez, has made music for 25 years. He began with Latin hip hop and later pop, working with stars like Christina Aguilera.

Fans love Pitbull's music as an escape. His concerts are full of energy with songs like "Timber" and "Fireball" to help people have fun.

Pitbull's music brings people together. His shows are joyful and remind fans of happy times.