

A judge stopped the Trump team from sending California's National Guard to L.A. The law says the state's Governor should control the troops.

California sued Trump for sending troops without permission. Trump wanted to stop protests in Los Angeles. Local leaders say they can manage.

Governor Newsom and a judge agree the military shouldn't be on streets. The decision isn't final as it's being appealed. More news soon.