

People met in Rome on 12 June to talk about security and Russia in Ukraine. They want Europe to be safer and to work for peace.

They talked about NATO keeping us safe. They want Europe to help more and work with NATO to be strong and ready.

They support Ukraine and want peace. They like the talks and want them to keep trying. They want Russia's attacks to stop.

They want to help Ukraine be strong and safe by improving its army, defence, economy, and rebuilding.

There will be a big meeting in Italy to help Ukraine join the European Union and become a strong, happy country.
