

A man from Exeter was in a crime group moving drugs. He used his home to store them. Police found drugs and weapons in May 2020.

Wills had 33 past crimes. He was banned from firearms in 2018. In 2021, he was guilty of having an air rifle. His sentence was 14 years.

The Solicitor General said the crime hurt communities. She was happy the court gave Wills a longer sentence. He was first given nine years.