

Big Meeting for Immigration Helpers

The Immigration Advice Authority had an online meeting with 800 people. They talked about new immigration rules and shared ideas.

The conference helps people learn and improve in helping others. It covered new laws, Home Office changes, and using data in legal help.

The day ended with questions. People talked to IAA leaders. The IAA thanked everyone for helping make immigration advice better and safer.