

Help with Energy Bills

This winter, 6 million families will save £150 on energy bills with the Warm Home Discount. This includes 2.7 million new families needing help.

The government is giving extra money, free school meals, childcare help, and energy bill discounts to help families.

The Plan for Change wants to help families with lower bills and more support. It also aims to use cleaner energy and rely less on fossil fuels.