

New Health Toolkit for Better Living

A new health toolkit helps people with learning disabilities in Leicester, Leicestershire, and Rutland eat well, drink water, and stay active.

The toolkit helps health workers, carers, and people with learning disabilities. It is free to download and has an easy-to-read version.

The toolkit shows the need for places with wheelchair scales. Using it helps people stay healthy and live longer.