

South Africa's cricket team needs 69 more runs to beat Australia. They have 8 wickets left. This win is very important for them.

Coach Ashwell Prince believes this win will help South Africa's cricket future. The team aims to focus and improve in important matches.

Beau Webster believes Australia can win if South Africa gets nervous. They'll aim to get South Africa's players out quickly, one wicket at a time.

Australia will keep it simple. They want to get a new South African batter in. They aim to take one wicket and see what happens next.
