

UK's New Security Plan

The UK will spend 5% of its money on safety. This will make jobs and keep people safe with help from NATO by 2035.

The UK has a new plan to be safer. It will use science, trade, and tech to grow the economy and stop cyber-attacks.

The plan will help UK businesses and make more jobs. It will also put money into research to keep the UK strong and safe.