

The European Central Bank cut its interest rate to 2% due to trade worries with the US, like higher taxes on steel and aluminium from the EU.

Europe's economy is not doing well now, but may improve. Europe plans to spend more on defence and infrastructure. The EU taxes some US goods.