

Help for People Taking GLP-1 Medicines

Yellow Card Biobank studies if genes cause side effects from GLP-1 medicines for diabetes and weight loss. Report if you had pancreatitis after use.

The MHRA wants doctors and patients to report side effects and give saliva samples. This helps make medicines safer and more personal.

MHRA and Genomics England check genes to stop bad medicine reactions, saving NHS money and helping people get safer medicines.