

Rachel Reeves said more money for NHS and housing. Foreign Office and environment department will have less daily money.

The government plans to invest in AI and transport to grow the economy and prepare the NHS. Some worry this might lead to tax rises.

Hotels for asylum seekers will stop by 2029. NHS gets more money, schools might get less. Police get more money if local taxes rise.

More money for science, technology, and transport. More free school meals for kids. Plans to help the economy grow.

Some want more money for social care and a closer EU deal. The chancellor says she won't return to old money-saving ways.