

NHS 10-Year Plan

The UK wants to help the NHS by giving more care in local areas and helping people stay healthy. People with learning disabilities need better care.

The plan helps kids grow with health visitors. The Government asked for ideas to improve the NHS and support people with learning disabilities.

People want more details and real changes for those with learning disabilities. They hope for better health checks and local NHS support.