

The Maritime and Coastguard Agency has new rules to make ships safer in cold places like the North and South Poles.

New rules for fishing boats, big yachts, and cargo ships aim to make them safer in cold polar waters and protect animals and plants.

The plan began on 12 June 2025. Share thoughts until 24 July 2025. The rules aim to reduce pollution and protect polar regions.