

The East West Council in Northern Ireland is giving up to £1 million to help local groups work together and solve problems.

The Connect Fund helps groups make friends and work together. They can ask for £300 to £50,000.

The East West Council helps UK areas work together for better trade and business, helping people and businesses grow and succeed.