

New Easy Read Guides for Artists

Creating Out Loud has new Easy Read guides for artists with learning disabilities. They use simple words and pictures to help artists learn and grow.

Guides made with help from people with Down syndrome help everyone join and learn. They were tested with artists and people with disabilities.

The guides are free. They help artists feel confident, learn new skills, talk about their work, and grow their careers.