

Helping You with Your Money

The government will make new rules to help people with pensions and money. The FCA will help with this plan.

The FCA made draft rules for targeted support. This will help companies give better advice on pensions and investments.

Share thoughts on new rules by 29 August 2025. More details on 15 July. It's about helping with workplace pensions.