

Talking About Positive Behaviour Support

PBS helps with behaviour. Some say it's not right for autistic people. Learning Disability England is listening to all views.

Learning Disability England wants people to share thoughts on PBS. They'll work with Neurodiverse Collective to help everyone join and share stories.

People can share their PBS experiences without names. This helps decide what happens next. A meeting in summer will discuss more.