

Lord Adebowale talked about his mum's bad care because of race issues. She died not knowing she had lung cancer, making the family very sad.

Grace moved from Nigeria to the UK and worked as a nurse. She trusted the NHS but didn't get the right care. Her cancer was found after she died.

Lord Adebowale says many black, poor, or old people face problems. The NHS has big inequalities. He wants better leaders to fix this.

The NHS has a 10-year plan to give everyone good care. Lord Adebowale wants change so no one suffers like his mum did.
