

The BBC website uses cookies. Some are always on. You can choose to turn on more or not accept extra cookies.

Leinster won the United Rugby Championship, beating the Bulls 32-7 at Croke Park. This is their ninth win.

The Bulls scored once and lost. Leinster stayed strong and won. Bulls lost three finals in five years. Leinster's win was a team effort.

Leinster's players scored tries. The Bulls struggled, and Leinster won the game.

The match showed how good Leinster are at rugby. They have a strong team and work well together. The Bulls will try to do better next time.