

Carlos Alcaraz won the French Open final against Jannik Sinner. He came back from losing to win his fifth major title, saving match points.

The match was exciting on Court Philippe Chatrier. Alcaraz won a Grand Slam after saving match points, the first since 2019.

Sinner nearly won but lost to Alcaraz. It was their first big match and very exciting. Both players tried their best in this great contest.