

Protest at Hove Town Hall

People protested in Hove about changes to PIP and universal credit. The group Speak Out shared a petition. Many worry about money cuts.

Ollie Sykes asked the council leader to tell the minister about worries. Steve Davis said changes could make more people poor.

Jacob Allen said to check changes before they start. Bella Sankey said the council works with learning disability groups locally.