

Trump made a travel ban for 12 countries in Africa and the Middle East for safety reasons.

Afghanistan and Iran are linked to terrorism. Somalia and Libya struggle with land control and passport issues.

Haiti and Chad have high visa overstay rates. People stay in the US too long. Trump says this breaks US immigration laws.

Some countries, like Venezuela and Cuba, are accused of not taking back their people from the US. Laos and Sierra Leone have visa overstay problems.

Trump's choice upset some countries. They think the ban is unfair. The US says it's needed to keep the country safe.
