

News for Learning Disabilities

The NHS has a plan for community care and stopping health problems early. A new toolkit and video help people with learning disabilities in Leicester.

MPs voted on welfare and assisted dying bills. Some Labour MPs and disability groups are unhappy with the welfare changes.

A picture book for people with learning disabilities is out. A toolkit helps teach sex education. Many carers have health issues from their work.