

Ed Miliband's Talk on Clean Energy

Ed Miliband talked about more jobs and clean energy. The government is funding new projects to help the UK and the planet.

The government is helping to make clean energy happen faster by making planning and rules easier. This will help start more projects and create jobs.

Ed Miliband wants to work with energy companies for a cleaner future with more jobs. The government aims to make energy cheaper and better for all.