

Sensory Bags at Ealing Hospital

Ealing Hospital gives free care bags to patients with learning disabilities and autism. The bags have earphones, a colouring book, and a stress ball.

Care bags help nurses with patients with learning disabilities. They have a tag to get help from a special team at three places.

A charity gave 500 bags to help patients feel calm and safe in the hospital.