

The UK doesn't have to pay high tariffs on steel from the US. But the deal must be done by 9 July, or tariffs could go up.

Businesses worry about tariffs. The UK lowered tariffs on US goods like beef and ethanol, upsetting some UK markets.

The UK must be careful with changes. It could upset the US and affect businesses and markets.