

Drone shows are popular at events. A wedding in New York had a surprise show with 100-150 drones, making everyone happy.

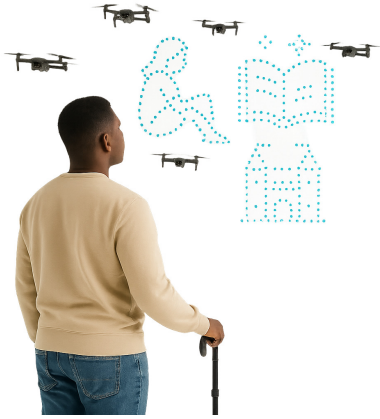

Drone shows are at big events, like festivals and sports. They make pictures and patterns. It's a new art but can cost a lot.

Skymagic has 6,000 drones for shows. They fly for 25 minutes, have lights, and are controlled by one person using GPS.

Drone shows can have fireworks and music. They are exciting but can be costly and hard to set up.

Countries have different rules for flying drones. This can make planning hard. Drone shows can tell stories and amaze people, like at weddings.