

UK's New Plan for Business Growth

The UK has a 10-year plan to help businesses grow, focusing on 8 sectors like Clean Energy and Tech. It aims to make business easier and cheaper.

Business leaders like the plan. They think it will help the UK grow and be better for business. Companies want to work with the government.

The plan has new training for tech and engineering skills. This will help make jobs and support growth across the UK.