

Donald Trump made a new travel ban for 12 countries. Experts say it's better planned than the first one, which was stopped for being unfair.

The ban affects countries in the Middle East, Africa, and the Caribbean. Some have strong rules, others lighter. There's no end date for the ban.

Trump's ban aims to stop terrorism and visa overstays, but experts say the reasons are unclear, which could cause legal issues.

Some countries are upset about the ban. Venezuela called Trump's team names. Somalia wants to talk. Protests happened, and Biden stopped the ban in 2021.
