

News About Indigenous Peoples

Indigenous Peoples protect 80% of earth's plants and animals but make up only 6% of the world. They are often left out of important decisions.

Indigenous Peoples face unfair challenges. The UN wants change and is working to include them in decisions about their land and future.

The UN has meetings to hear Indigenous Peoples and respect their rights.