

The Fisheries and Seafood Scheme in England has £6 million to help make seafood better for nature and boost local economies.

This scheme is run by the Marine Management Organisation. It helps reduce waste, clean up waters, and supports fishing communities. The government.

A new deal with the EU will help sell UK seafood. The FaSS scheme helps fishing and protects the sea.