

Tatjana Maria won the Queen's tennis title. She beat Amanda Anisimova and is the first woman winner in 52 years. She won 6-3, 6-4.

Maria, 37, surprised everyone by winning against top players. She celebrated with family. Her youngest child slept through the match in a pram.