

UK's Big Plan for Fusion Energy

The UK plans to make clean energy from fusion by 2040 in Nottinghamshire.

The government will spend £2.5 billion to create jobs and new businesses. The STEP plan helps the UK lead in clean energy technology.

The UK is teaming up with others to improve fusion energy, building a fuel centre, and investing more money to lead in clean energy.