

Fun Events for Being Active

In June 2025, Worcestershire held fun events for people with learning disabilities to be active during Learning Disability Week.

Events had Olympics, Zumba, and games. Disability Rights UK helped. People learned about local activities like free swimming in Bromsgrove.

Kerry said the events were fun and helpful. The team did it all for free. People enjoyed games like table tennis and badminton.