

A plane crashed into a hostel in Ahmedabad. Many people were having lunch. The plane was going to London but crashed soon after takeoff.

The crash caused a big fire. Many were hurt, and some died. It was loud and scary. Some tried to help, but it was hard because of the heat and debris.

Rescue workers and locals helped find survivors. Many were hurt or trapped. The crash caused chaos as people tried to escape and find loved ones.

Some people in the building died. We don't know how many. Investigators are trying to find out who was affected by the crash.

Families are sad and waiting for news. The community is helping and supporting each other during this hard time.