

Grooming Inquiry Changes

Jim Gamble left the grooming gang inquiry. He found political arguments made it hard. Some survivors want the Safeguarding Minister to step down.

Four survivors left, wanting a judge to lead. Samantha and Carly disagree and are staying.

The inquiry looks at grooming gangs. Some want it to cover more abuse. The government seeks a leader to ensure survivors are heard.