

Care Home Needs to Improve

A report said St Mary's Care Home in Linthorpe did not meet some needs. The Care Quality Commission said it needed to improve leadership.

The care home was for people with dementia and disabilities. It later took in people with learning disabilities and autism, but staff weren't ready.

Some people were left without activities, especially those with limited speech. The care home made some changes, like hiring more staff, but still.