

There were five nights of trouble in Northern Ireland. Police were hit with fireworks and bricks after a peaceful protest in Ballymena.

Police were hurt and are looking for those responsible. They've arrested 17 people and shared pictures of four more. They aim to keep everyone safe.

People are setting fires. A home and a centre were burned. Police think groups are involved and want help to stop the violence.

Police are here to keep us safe. Stay away from trouble areas. If you cause trouble, there will be consequences. Stay calm.