

Cold Weather and Snow in the UK

Cold Arctic air is making the UK very cold. Snow and ice warnings are in Scotland and northern England. Health alerts are in place until Friday.

Snow and ice make travel hard. More snow is coming to Scotland and the UK. Some snow might be heavy. It will be less cold by the weekend.

It will be very cold, especially at night. Thursday night will be the coldest, -12C in rural Scotland. Warmer by Saturday but still chilly.