

UK Helps Nature with Big Meeting

The UK Government had a big meeting in London about nature and money. They want businesses to give more money to help nature.

People discussed new ways to fund nature protection. The UK aims to lead in saving nature and fighting climate change.

Businesses will spend more to help nature. The UK Government wants ideas to grow the economy and keep nature healthy for the future.