

Muckamore Abbey Hospital Inquiry

A hospital in Northern Ireland faces an abuse scandal. An inquiry is looking into abuse from 1999 to 2021. The Trust apologised for staff failings.

An inquiry found people with learning disabilities were harmed at a hospital. Police are involved, and 16 people are charged after CCTV showed abuse.

The Trust is sorry for the pain caused. They will fix problems, get more money for services, and use CCTV to keep patients safe.
