

The FSA got £1.4 million for a new hub to ensure new foods are safe and to help businesses with rules.

The money helps the FSA check new foods quickly. This keeps food safe and helps new food ideas grow, giving the UK more choices.

The FSA helps UK businesses with recycled plastics, new foods, improves food checks, and supports trading with other countries.