

Family Policies for a Better Future

International Day of Families in May 2025 will share ideas on how families help with sustainable development and the 2030 Agenda goals.

The Second World Summit for Social Development in November 2025 will be in Doha, Qatar, focusing on poverty, decent work, and social inclusion.

The event will share ideas about families from meetings. It's online and shows how strong families make strong communities.